

A technical diagram showing a corner bracket being installed on a wall. The bracket is an L-shaped metal piece. Two screws are shown being driven into the wall, one through each arm of the bracket. A leader line points from the text label to the top screw.

#8x2"